

I am writing in support of the NJ Do Not Call law. I appreciate the positive affect that the regulation has had and do not want it changed in any way. The only bothersome calls that we receive now come from off-shore telemarketers. I suppose they are exempt from US regulations.